Bala Cynwyd, PA

Thursday, December 3, 2020

Event No. AT20/118576

Start Point: Bala Cynwyd Park, 398 Trevor Lane, Bala Cynwyd, Pa 19004

Directions:

From I-76 E, take Exit 338 for Belmont Ave. toward Green Lane. Turn right on Belmont Ave. Go about 1 mile and turn right on Landrillo Rd. Follow Landrillo to Trevor Lane. Turn right on Trevor Lane then an immediate right into the park entrance.

From I-76 W, take Exit 339 for US-1/City Ave. Continue for 0.7 miles and turn right on Belmont Ave. Continue for another 0.7 miles and turn left on Landrillo Rd. Follow Landrillo to Trevor Lane. Turn right on Trevor Lane then a quick right into the park.

Parking: There is limited free parking in the park. Parking is permitted on Trevor Lane on the right side.

Trail Description: AVA trail rating is 2-B. Distance is 10K or 5K. Most of the trail is on paved surfaces. A short section of the trail has a crushed gravel or natural surface. There is one significant hill and a few minor inclines.

The trail starts out on the Cynwyd Heritage Trail, then will go through a residential section with lovely stone homes. From there you will walk through the West Laurel Hill Cemetery where there are many notable burial sites. There are 3 bridges to cross – an older railroad bridge known as the Mule Bridge (those with balance issues will have to use extra caution on this bridge), the Pencoyd Bridge which connects Bala Cynwyd with Manayunk, and the impressive multi-arched Manayunk Trail Bridge which spans the Schuylkill River and I-76. Also walk a section of the Manayunk canal tow path.

The restroom building at the Start Point is closed, but there is a port-a-potty available in the parking lot.

Fees: IVV Credit is $3.00.

Start Time: The walk will start at 10:00. Plan to arrive by 9:45 to allow time to register.
